HOW DID IDUE BEGIN?

Two professionals, but first and foremost, two best friends.

It's incredible to think that if Daniele hadn't lost that return plane ticket from Spain, we wouldn't be here today. We first met while working together on an event, and the connection was immediate; the audience was ecstatic. We knew right away that this had to be the starting point for our future, a chance to have fun together and give people a unique and unforgettable experience.
